Michael A. Tremeski focuses his practice on assisting clients with matters relating to capital markets and mergers and acquisitions.

A background of experience leading to deep industry knowledge

Prior to joining Katten, Michael worked as a paralegal at a large international law firm, a legal extern at the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and a judicial extern to the Honorable Joan H. Lefkow of the US District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. In addition, he served as an executive editor for the Northwestern University Law Review. His roles taught him how to be detail-oriented, work diligently and view legal issues from a variety of angles.
