Moti Zilberstein represents banks, insurance companies and professional sports franchises, as well as affordable housing developers. Moti excels in providing personalized attention and care to each of his clients.

Persistence and patience achieve results

Moti strives to bring joy, commitment and excellence to every case, tackling complex problems with thoughtful knowledge and creativity and constantly adapting to the needs of his clients to achieve results. His particular interest in real estate transactional law stems from these particular strengths, which he brings to negotiations in this field that result in contracts and agreements to best serve all involved parties.

During law school, Moti received eight CALI awards and two Witkin awards, was part of the Law Review, served as a Dean's Fellow and taught as an assistant in five courses. He also founded the school's Jewish Growth Society, strengthening his involvement in community, and spent time volunteering in elderly homes and mentoring teens, fortifying his sense of compassion and patience.
