Brett Fox represents senior secured, first lien, second lien and mezzanine lenders in a range of commercial finance deals. Across industries, including sports, franchise, media and technology, software, health care and manufacturing, Brett understands market trends and can advise middle-market lenders in a wide range of financing transactions.

Broad experience in financing transactions

Brett's clients look to him for counsel on structuring, negotiating and administering complex commercial, secured and asset-based financings. He has experience on a range of deal sizes, from single bank financings for small companies to broadly syndicated credit facilities in the uppermiddle market and large-cap equity sponsors. His financing transactions practice encompasses leveraged buyout transactions, cash flow and asset-based transactions, unitranche, first-out-last-out and one-stop financings, cross-border financings, health care financings, franchise financings and sports team financings.
