Jacqueline Perel provides sympathetic guidance and robust practical counsel to her clients as they navigate the complex criminal justice system.

Determined advocate with a multifaceted perspective

During law school, Jacqueline served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Joan M. Azrack in the US District Court for the Eastern District of New York and an intern for the Honorable Eric N. Vitaliano in the US District Court for the Eastern District of New York. These experiences imbued her with invaluable insights and skills needed to manage challenging legal matters. She also was the senior online editor for Cornell's International Law Journal and a bench editor for Cornell's Moot Court team.
