

Cade Grady

Associate

Insolvency and Restructuring

New York Office | +1.212.940.6379

cade.grady@katten.com

Cade Grady concentrates her practice on insolvency and restructuring matters.

A keen understanding and curiosity about unique company structures, dedication to thorough research

Cade's previous experience includes interning at the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Division of Corporation Finance, and in a public defender's office. Through her various internships, she gained a deep understanding of SEC rules and regulations, as well as strong research skills and a comfortable courtroom presence.

Practices

- Insolvency and Restructuring

Education

- JD, Northeastern University School of Law
- BA, American University

Bar Admissions

- New York

Court Admissions

- US District Court, Southern District of New York