

Cait Johnson

Associate

Private Credit

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5374

cait.johnson@katten.com

Cait Johnson advises lenders and borrowers in complex financial transactions in the commercial sectors of manufacturing, financial services, health care and technology solutions.

Efficient problem-solving results from dedication to detail

Cait focuses her practice on structuring, negotiating and documenting financing arrangements of all types, including cross-border transactions, leveraged acquisition financings, secured and unsecured single bank and syndicated credit facilities, and cash flow and asset-based facilities. She works diligently to ensure transactions are negotiated and documented efficiently and effectively by focusing on her clients' objectives and priorities.

Practices

- Private Credit

Education

- JD, University of Illinois College of Law, magna cum laude
- BA, University of Notre Dame

Bar Admissions

- Illinois